Plein Aire Painting in Layers Workshops

Experience painting the breath-taking Grand Teton mountains, rivers, lakes and historical architecture around Jackson Hole, WY. You will learn how to quickly build a composition with depth and values in acrylic, then apply the final layers in oil to bring in relevant detail, subtle light effects, color and create sparkling paintings. Personal style and expression are encouraged. The painting in layers method will enable you to get beyond the minutia and put down on canvas your impressions of the visual landscape. Daily demos, lectures, critiques and individual instruction.

2012 Details
